Reflect on Your Leadership Legacy

Use honest, specific examples. Prepare to participate in the team devotional conversation.

1. When you think beyond today, what kind of leadership legacy do you want to leave?

2. What seeds are you planting right now that could produce fruit in someone else later?

3. Are you mainly completing tasks, or are you also developing people? Explain.

Put It into Practice

Choose one primary growth step for the next two weeks. You may also select supporting actions.

_____ Plant a seed: Encourage, pray for, or intentionally invest in someone on your team.

_____ Develop a leader: Give someone an opportunity to learn, serve, lead, or take greater responsibility.

_____ Pass it on: Share something God or another leader has taught you with someone who can teach it to others.

_____ Serve faithfully: Be consistent in an area where serving has become difficult, tiring, or unnoticed.

_____ Think generations: Identify how your current leadership can continue through someone else.

_____ Finish well: Address one habit, attitude, or responsibility that could keep you from remaining faithful over the long haul.

Which growth step will you focus on, and why?
