_____.

Psalm 34:18 (NLT): “The LORD is close to the brokenhearted; he rescues those whose spirits are crushed.”

2. _____ BEFORE YOU _____.

James 1:19 (NLT): “Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry.”

3. OFFERING _____ WITHOUT RUSHING

_____.

Psalm 147:3 (NLT): “He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds.”

4. BEING WISE IN WHAT YOU _____.

Proverbs 25:11 (NLT): “A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.”

5. _____ AFTER THE CRISIS.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 (NLT): “Encourage those who are timid. Take tender care of those who are weak. Be patient with everyone.”

PRACTICAL APPLICATION FOR PASTORS

Don't delay when someone calls in crisis.

Train leaders and volunteers to visit, call, and pray for those in need.

Crisis ministry can be emotionally draining; stay prayed up and spiritually healthy.

Connect them with counseling, support groups, or financial help if needed.

Crisis care is not a one-time visit — it's a commitment.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 2. Why is listening often more powerful than speaking in a crisis situation?

3. How can you offer hope without sounding like you're minimizing pain?
4. What systems can you set up to ensure long-term follow-up after a crisis?
5. Have you personally experienced a pastor's care in crisis? How did it affect you?
